Admissions for the Master of Science, School Counseling Concentration

Deadline is February 1\textsuperscript{st} of each year

Fall Admission Only

The admissions process for the School Counseling Program is through the Graduate School [hotlinked]. Upon completing the general application, you will be automatically directed to add several other documents specific to the counseling programs. In all, you will submit the following information with your application (all found through the Graduate School application process):

- Graduate School Application
- GRE (Verbal Reasoning, Quantitative Reasoning, Analytical Writing)
- Transcripts
- Three letters of recommendation
  - We recommend at least two from professors, unless you have been out of school for more than four years
  - Other options might include: work supervisors, volunteer supervisors
- Case Vignettes
- Letter of Introduction
- Resume

We consider all aspects of your application packet, and understand that everyone has strengths and areas for growth. We believe that taken together, the materials listed above provide us with a comprehensive picture of our applicants for admission purposes.

Admissions is a two-step process for us. First, we review your application materials. Then, we require online interviews for all applicants who meet our standards based on our review of applications. After the interviews, applicants are notified about their admission status.
