PRACTICUM APPLICATION – Clinical Mental Health Counseling
The University of Tennessee

Due October 1 the semester before Practicum
Note that Practicum is offered each spring semester in Clinical Mental Health Counseling.

Name: ___________________________________ Email: _______________________

Phone: ________________________________

When did or will you have completed the practicum prerequisites?

480: Skills for Counseling
554: Group Dynamics & Methods
535: Professional Orientation and Ethics
551: Theory and Practice in Counseling

Please indicate the types of setting and clients with which you would most like to work. List at least three different setting or client types in order of preference. If you have specific potential settings in mind, you may list them here.

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

If you are interested in any particular setting(s), list below:

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

Please indicate any type of setting, client type, or specific setting with which you would not like to work, with a brief explanation why.

______________________________________________________________________________